

caillou

Book 3-4

Storyteller: Look, Caillou's a mailman. And that's perfect for today's story time because today's story is called "Caillou Mails a Letter".

Mommy: Are you having fun, dear?

Caillou: Yes, Mommy!

Mommy: What a wonderful sunny day!

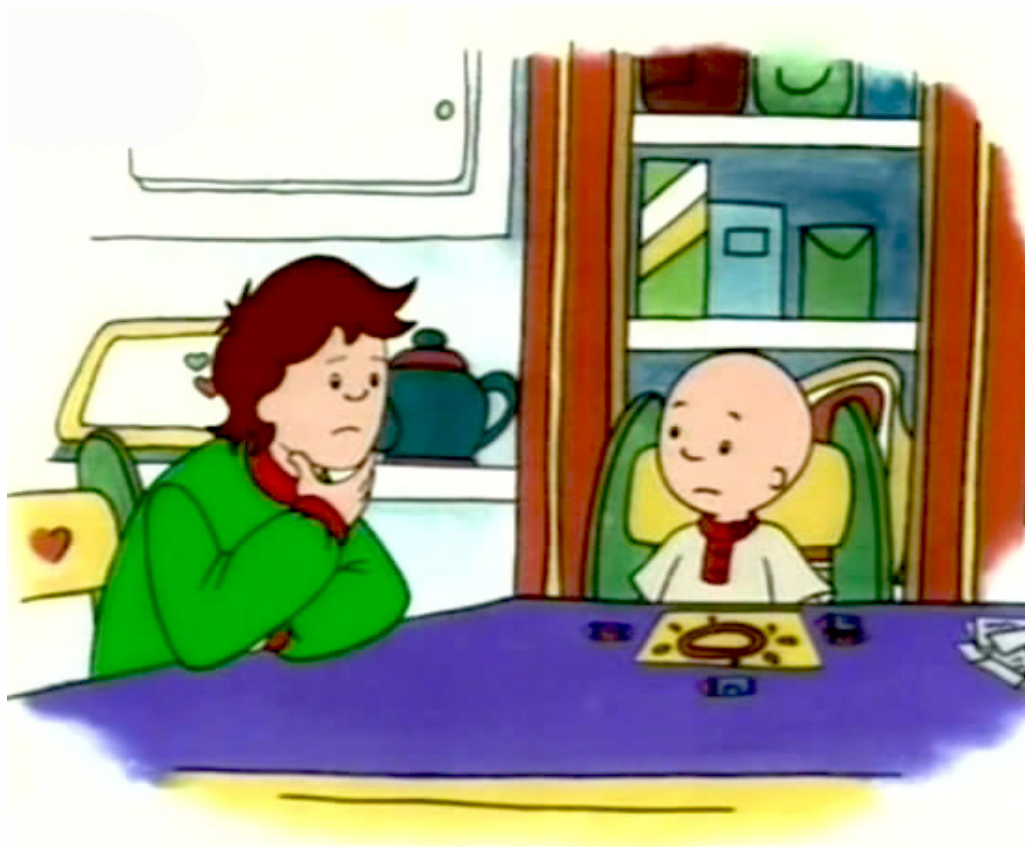

Caillou: I'm going to draw the sun.

Mommy: I think the mail's arrived.

Mommy: I wonder if there's any nice letter today. Oh, bills, bills, bills! Nothing but bills. It sure would be nice to get a letter for a change.

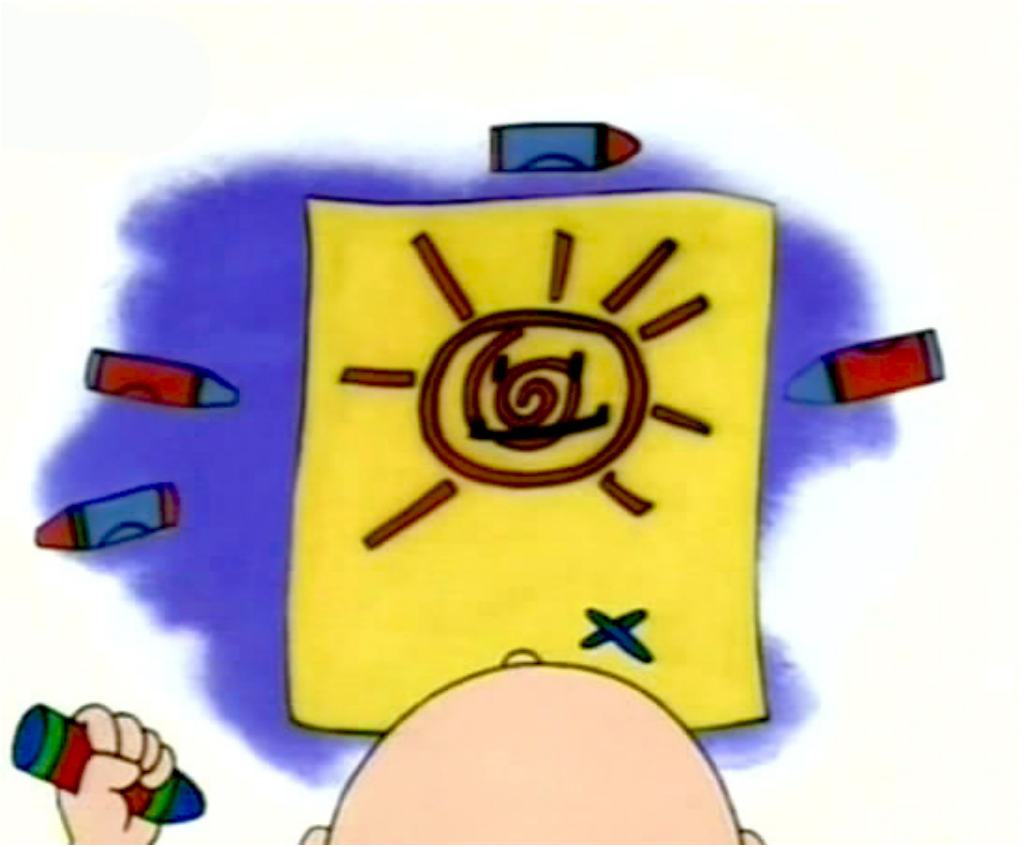

Daddy: Hi, Caillou! Is anything the matter?

Caillou: Mommy wants to get a letter.

Daddy: Does she now?

Storyteller: Caillou explained how Mommy didn't like bills and wanted to get a letter.

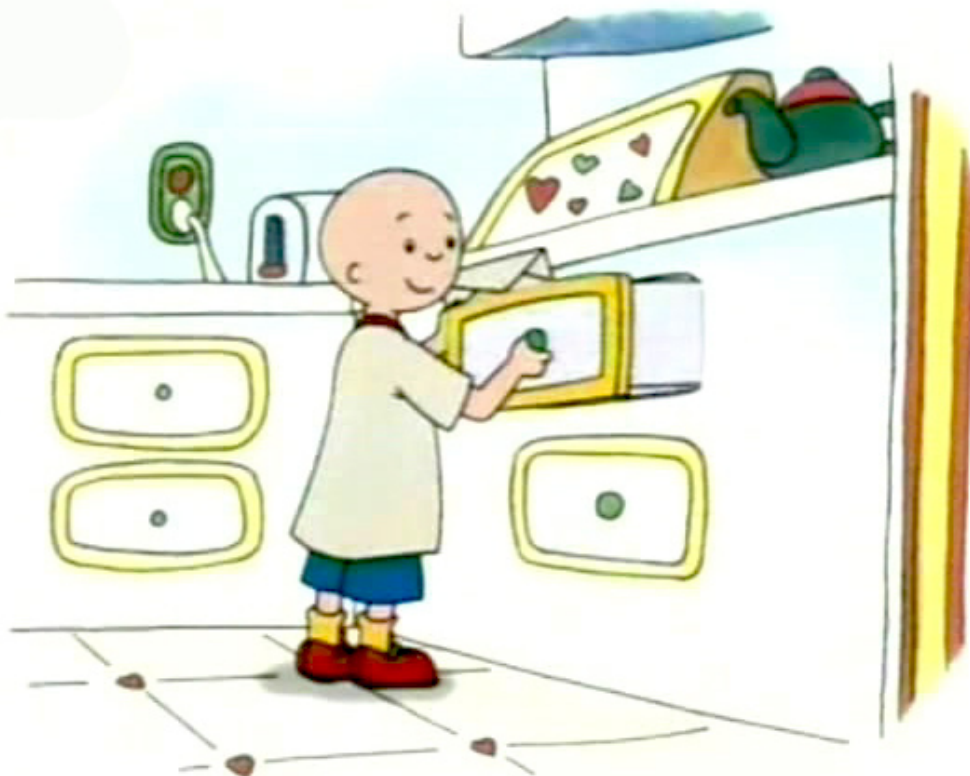

Daddy: Well, why don't we send her one? In fact, I think you've already made one. Yes, look! That will make a wonderful letter.

Caillou: Do we send it to Mommy?

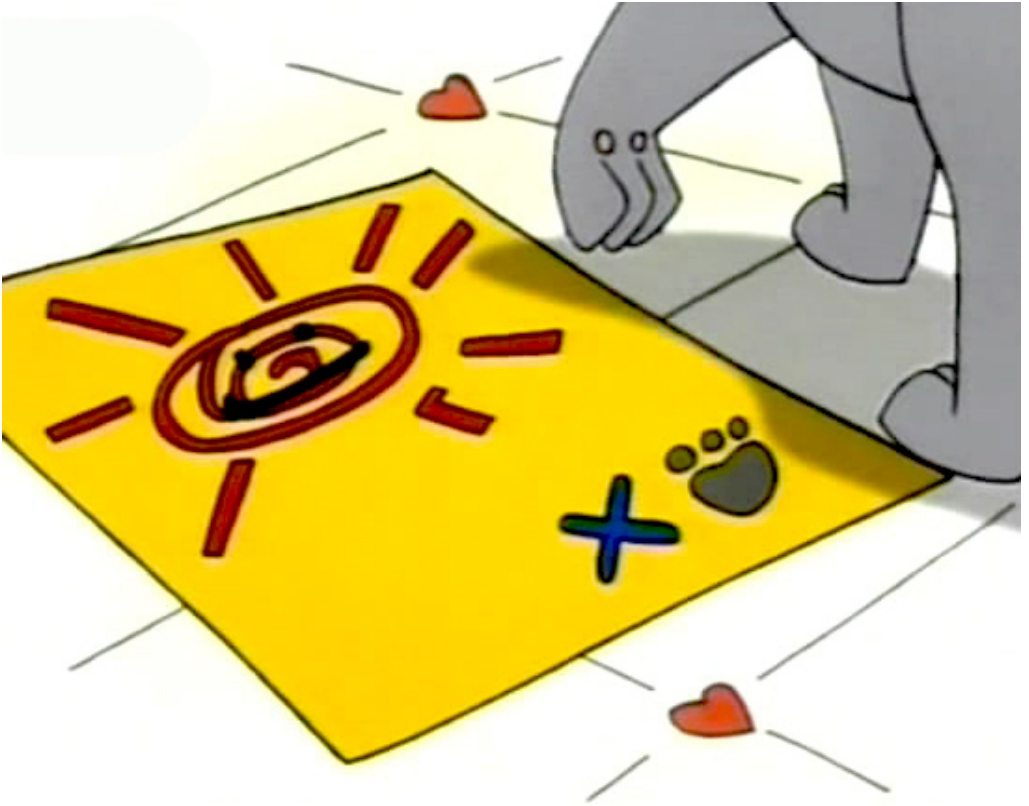

Daddy: Absolutely. We'll make sure the mailman brings it tomorrow morning.

Storyteller: Caillou knew that people sometimes put kisses on letters with an x.

Daddy: A kiss, that's great! Now, what we need is an envelope.

Caillou: I know where they're Daddy. I'll be right back.

Daddy: How about a stamp?

Caillou: Yes! Oh! Gilbert.

Mommy: Caillou, where are you?

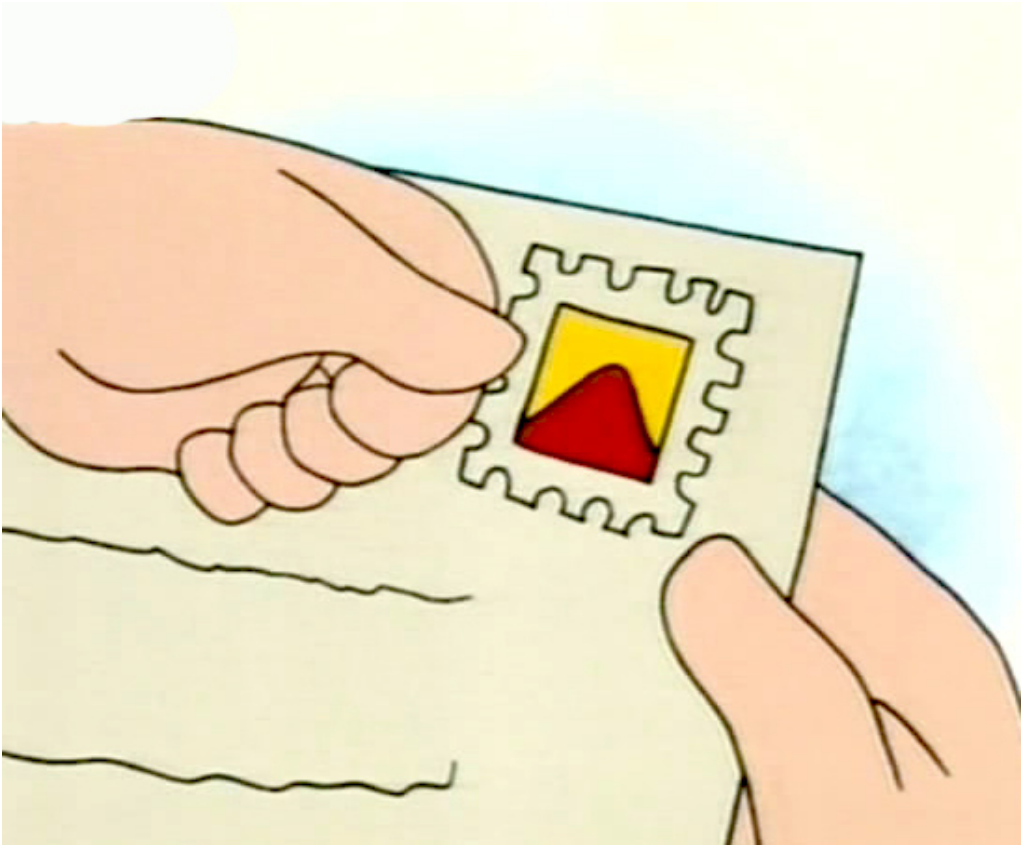

Mommy: Now, what are you two up to ?

Daddy: Nothing! Nothing at all. Isn't that right, Caillou?

Caillou: That's right, Mommy.

Daddy: If we want Mommy to get her letter in the morning, you have to have everything finished tonight. And we have to get up extra early in the morning.

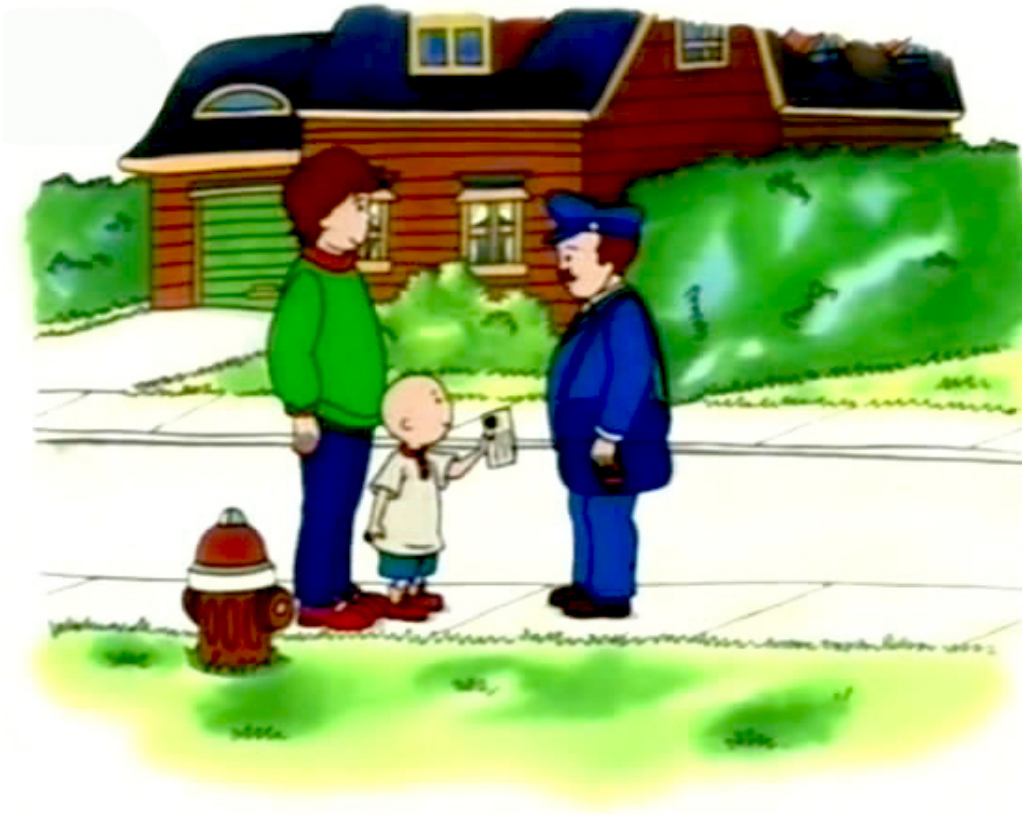

Caillou: Yes! Yuck!

Daddy: Now, what else do we need to do?

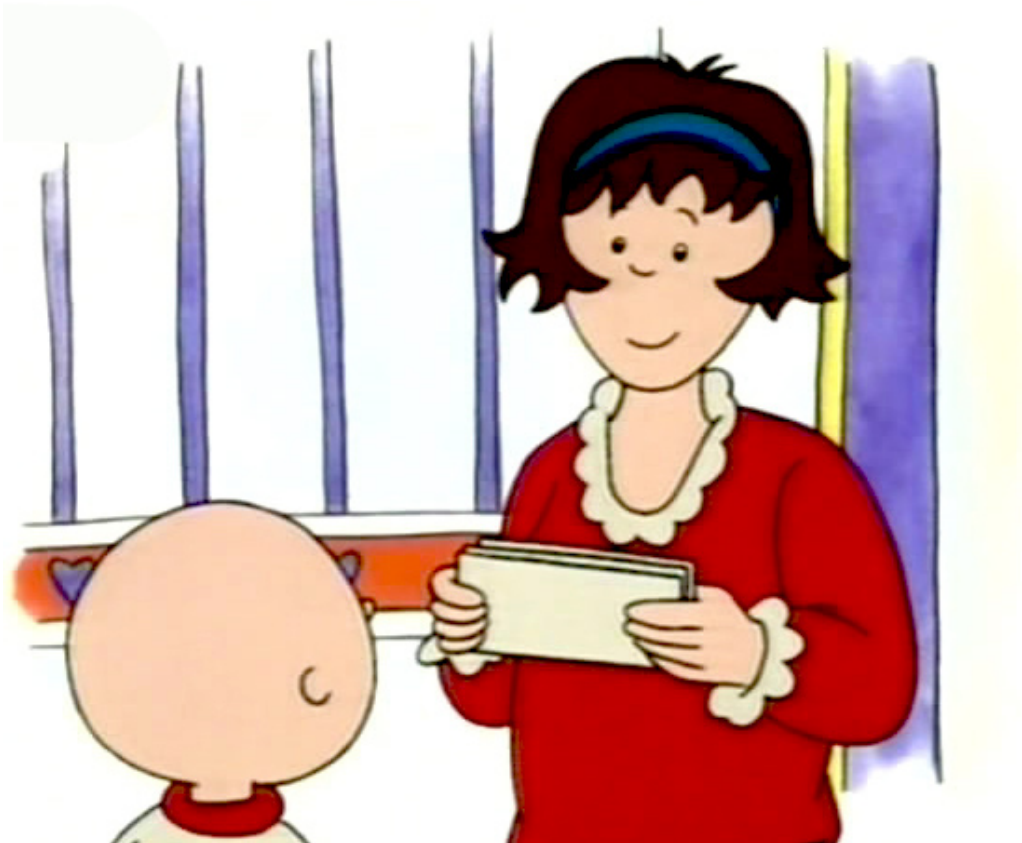

Caillou: We need to stick on the stamp.

Daddy: That's right.

Caillou: Wow!

Storyteller: The next morning Caillou and his Daddy got up extra early so they could meet the mailman.

Caillou: Mommy, Mommy! The mailman's coming.

Caillou: Mommy, I think you have a letter today.

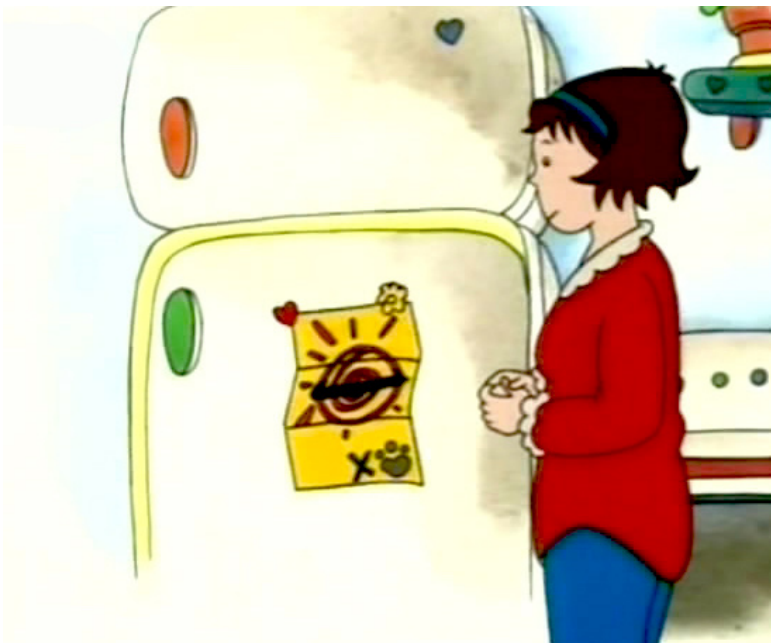

Mommy: Well, this letter looks interesting.

Mommy: Caillou, what a wonderful surprise! And you even got Gilbert to sign it. Thank you Caillou. I'll keep my letter forever.

Caillou: Forever?

Mommy: It's the nicest letter I've ever got.
